NOTES:

- As a member of the Company you are entitled to appoint a proxy to exercise all or any of your rights to attend, speak and vote at a meeting of the Company. If it is intended to appoint some other person as proxy, delete "the Chairman of the Meeting", insert that other person's name in the space provided and initial the amendment. A proxy need not be a member of the Company but must attend the meeting to represent you. Where you appoint as your proxy someone other than the Chairman, you are responsible for ensuring that they attend the meeting and are aware of your voting intentions. If you wish your proxy to make any comments on your behalf, you will need to appoint someone other than the Chairman and give them the relevant instructions directly.
- Please indicate how you wish your proxy to vote by placing an "X" in the appropriate box. To abstain from voting on a resolution, select the relevant "Abstain/Withhold" box. A vote withheld is not a vote in law, which means that the vote will not be counted in the calculation of the proportion of the votes for or against the resolution. If no indication is given your proxy will vote or abstain at his discretion. Your proxy will vote (or abstain from voting) as he or she thinks fit in relation to any other matter which is put before the meeting.
- In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior holder who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, will be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members in respect of a joint holding.
- Where the appointor is a corporation, this form of proxy must be executed under its common seal or be signed on its behalf by an officer, attorney or other person duly authorised in that behalf to sign the same.

If you submit more than one valid proxy appointment, the appointment received last before the latest time for the receipt of proxies will take precedence.
- Any alterations to this form of proxy should be initialled.
- Completion and return of this form of proxy will not preclude the appointor from attending and voting in person at the meeting should he/she/it wish to do so. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the meeting in person, your proxy appointment will automatically terminate.
